1. Summary of Operating Results, etc.

(1) Summary of Operating Results for the year ended March 31, 2022

On April 1, 2021, the Company (the former Mitsubishi UFJ Lease & Finance Company Limited, "MUL") executed the business integration with Hitachi Capital Corporation ("HC") and changed the trade name to Mitsubishi HC Capital Inc. ("MHC")

Accordingly, the figures for the year ended March 31, 2021 in 1) Summary of operating results and topics are the sum of consolidated results of MUL and those of HC (IFRS basis) converted into J-GAAP basis in a simplified manner, which are presented as reference values.

Figures for the year ended March 31, 2021 and as of March 31, 2021 in 2) Operating results by reporting segments are the sum of consolidated results of MUL and those of HC (IFRS basis) converted into J-GAAP basis in a simplified manner, which are reclassified to conform to the new segmentation and presented as reference value.

1) Summary of operating results and topics

Summarized results for the year ended March 31, 2022 were as follows.

Net income attributable to owners of the parent increased by ¥12.2 billion, or 14.0% year on year (to reference value), to ¥99.4 billion mainly thanks to 1) business growth in subsidiaries in Europe and the U.S. in Account Solution segment and in marine container leasing in Logistics segment, 2) an increase in gains on sale of assets in Aviation segment, 3) continuous replacement of the portfolio, and 4) steady promotion in asset turnover business, exceeding the full-year earnings forecast (¥95.0 billion of net income attributable to owners of the parent) by ¥4.4 billion.

As a result of exceeding the full-year earnings forecast, annual dividend per share is expected to be ¥28, an increase by ¥2 from annual dividend forecast of ¥26 and by ¥2.50 from the annual dividend paid for the year ended March 31, 2021 of ¥25.50.

Major topics include that, in October 2021, the Company announced its support for Recommendations of the Task Force on Climate-related Financial Disclosures (TCFD) and, in December 2021, identified and announced the following six material issues as our priority key challenges we should address for our sustainable growth: (1) Promote a decarbonized society, (2) Realize the circular economy, (3) Establish resilient social infrastructure, (4) Realize healthy lifestyles that promote positive wellbeing, (5) Create businesses utilizing the latest technologies, and (6) Collaborate with partners locally and globally. The MHC Group will implement specific business strategy/measures in line with these material issues.

As part of our efforts toward promotion of a decarbonized society and realization of prosperous and sustainable future through business, we established the Tokorozawa Kitaiwaoka Solar Power Plant in July 2021 under the solar sharing model which allows to cope with both providing electricity to Tokorozawa City, Saitama Prefecture, and cultivating blueberries. Our overseas efforts include the acquisition of shares of Trung Nam Wind Power Joint Stock Company, a Vietnamese wind power generation business developer and operator, in May 2021 to enter the wind power market in Vietnam and the investment in a solar power generation business in California, the U.S., in September 2021. Also, we made investment in Universal Hydrogen Co., a U.S. hydrogen-powered aircraft startup, in October 2021 and purchased 25 new generation fuel-efficient aircraft engines in the aircraft engine leasing business in November 2021, with an aim to contribute to reducing environmental impacts of the aviation industry by further increasing such engines.

In Logistics segment, the Company acquired all shares of CAI International, Inc., a leading U.S. marine container leasing company, and made them our wholly-owned subsidiary in November 2021. Taking advantage of this acquisition, we will enhance our global competitiveness in the marine container leasing business with high growth potential and stable leasing demand to develop the business as one of our growth drivers.

2) Operating results by reporting segments

Operating results by reporting segments were as follows.

Following the business integration with HC, the Company reorganized its reporting segments to ten segments as follows.

(For details of the reporting segments, please refer to “3. Consolidated Financial Statements and Major Notes, (5) Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements (Segment information, etc.)” on page 21.)

(Customer Business)

Segment profit increased by ¥7.9 billion, or 31.2% year on year (reference value), to ¥33.4 billion mainly thanks to business growth of ENGS Holdings Inc., a U.S. sales finance company, and an increase in gain on sale of strategic shareholdings.

(Account Solution)

Segment profit increased by ¥6.9 billion, or 34.9% year on year (reference value), to ¥26.9 billion mainly thanks to business growth primarily in Europe and the U.S. despite an increase in selling, general and administrative expenses associated with expanded business activities.

(Vendor Solution)

Segment profit decreased by ¥1.1 billion, or 28.2% year on year (reference value), to ¥3.0 billion due to a decrease in segment assets despite an increase in new transactions volume.

(LIFE)

Segment profit increased by ¥0.6 billion, or 14.6% year on year (reference value), to ¥4.8 billion thanks to an increase in gain on sale of logistics facilities in the real estate-related business as well as a decrease in selling, general and administrative expenses.

(Real Estate)

Segment profit decreased by ¥8.8 billion, or 31.7% year on year (reference value), to ¥19.1 billion due to a reactionary fall in sales gains and absence of compensation received in association with the redevelopment project, both recorded in the Year ended March 31, 2021.

(Environment & Renewable Energy)

Segment profit remained flat year on year (reference value) at ¥7.0 billion due to an absence of gain on step acquisitions recorded in the solar power generation business in the Year ended March 31, 2021 despite an increase in electricity sales revenues.

(Aviation)

Segment profit increased by ¥2.9 billion, or 105.4% year on year (reference value), to ¥5.7 billion mainly thanks to an increase in gain on sale of assets and posting of gain on sale of certain receivables from bankrupt debtors, despite recognition of credit costs for certain existing customers, expenses in relation to modification of terms for certain existing lease contracts, posting of impairment loss, and foreign exchange losses related to borrowings denominated in foreign currencies in certain businesses.

(Logistics)

Segment profit increased by ¥0.8 billion, or 47.7%, year on year (reference value), to ¥2.7 billion mainly thanks to steady performance of Beacon Intermodal Leasing, LLC, a marine container leasing company, and an increase in equity-method investment gains in the auto leasing business, despite posting of one-time expenses in connection with reconfiguration of portfolio in the railway freight car leasing business and expenses related to the acquisition of CAI International, Inc.

(Mobility)

Segment profit increased by ¥1.1 billion, or 160.7% year on year (reference value), to ¥1.9 billion mainly thanks to an increase in gain on sale of vehicles for which the leasing term matured in Japan and overseas etc., responding to the high demand for used cars on a global basis.

(Others)

Segment profit decreased by ¥3.1 billion year on year (reference value), to a segment loss of ¥3.4 billion mainly due to posting of credit costs for certain customers in the infrastructure business.

We plan to change the reporting segments in the year ending March 31, 2023 along with the organizational changes.

Segment profits or losses by reporting segments

(Billions of yen)

		Year Ended March 31, 2021 (Reference value)	Year Ended March 31, 2022	Change (%)

Adjustments		(6.9)	(2.1)	-
Total		87.1	99.4	14.0

(Note) 1. Adjustments of segment profit (loss) consist mostly of adjustments of company-wide expenses included in selling, general and administrative expenses not allocated to any reporting segments.

2. Segment profit (loss) is consistent with net income attributable to owners of the parent on the consolidated statements of income.

Segment assets by reporting segments

(Billions of yen)

		As of March 31, 2021 (Reference value)	As of March 31, 2022	Change (%)

Total		8,604.8	9,345.3	8.6

(Note) 1. Segment assets include operating assets, equity-method investments, goodwill and investment securities.

2. Adjustments of segment assets consist mostly of goodwill recognized when Diamond Lease Company Limited and UFJ Central Leasing Co., Ltd. merged and became Mitsubishi UFJ Lease & Finance Company Limited in 2007 and other segment assets such as investment securities related to corporate, which are not attributable to any reporting segments, and offsets in transactions between segments.

(2) Summary of Financial Position as of March 31, 2022

1) Assets, liabilities, and equity

Total assets as of March 31, 2022 increased by ¥4,313.9 billion to ¥10,328.8 billion due to the business integration with HC on April 1, 2021. Total equity as of March 31, 2022 increased by ¥515.5 billion to ¥1,333.4 billion and interest-bearing debt (excluding lease obligations) increased by ¥3,431.1 billion to ¥8,066.0 billion.

2) Cash flows

Cash and cash equivalents as of March 31, 2022 increased ¥233.8 billion, or 81.7% year on year, to ¥520.0 billion, due to cash inflows in operating activities of ¥195.8 billion and a cash increase associated with a merger of ¥316.8 billion despite cash outflows in investing and financing activities of ¥107.8 billion and ¥192.1 billion, respectively.

Net cash provided by operating activities was ¥195.8 billion (cash provided of ¥199.3 billion for the Year ended March 31, 2021), mainly consisting of cash inflows from income before income taxes of ¥147.2 billion, depreciation of leased assets and loss on disposal and sales of leased assets of ¥443.9 billion despite cash outflows from purchases of leased assets and other operating assets of ¥404.9 billion.

Net cash used in investing activities was ¥107.8 billion (cash provided of ¥1.2 billion for the Year ended March 31, 2021), mainly consisting of cash outflows from payments for acquisition of newly consolidated subsidiaries of ¥124.5 billion, purchase of investment securities of ¥13.6 billion despite cash inflows from proceeds from sales and redemption of investment securities of ¥36.0 billion.

Net cash used in financing activities was ¥192.1 billion (cash used of ¥372.8 billion in the Year ended March 31, 2021), mainly consisting of net cash outflows from direct financing of ¥68.5 billion, indirect financing through bank borrowings of ¥73.2 billion, and dividends paid of ¥32.8 billion.

(3) Explanation of Forecast, including Consolidated Earnings Forecasts

1) External environment

The situation with the COVID-19 pandemic varies depending on countries and regions, including social activities in keeping with the spread of variants such as Omicron, vaccination rates, and rates of serious cases and deaths. However, in light of the gradual easing of restrictions aimed at preventing infections, it is expected that living with COVID-19 will become a common approach in socioeconomic activities, leading to a recovery in economic activities centering on consumption and investment.

On the other hand, Russia's invasion of Ukraine is causing a delay in economic recovery from the COVID-19 pandemic as it is no longer a mere localized conflict, but it is affecting global energy supply and the financial market. Although its impact on the MHC Group is limited at this moment as we have few receivables in Russia or Ukraine, we will continue to monitor its indirect impacts on our earnings that could be brought about by repercussions on the global economy.

2) Earnings forecasts and dividend forecasts for the year ending March 31, 2023

Net income attributable to owners of the parent for the year ending March 31, 2023 is forecast to be ¥110.0 billion, an increase of ¥10.5 billion year on year, as we expect growth in each business, contribution to consolidated earnings by CAI International, Inc., a leading U.S. marine container leasing company which became our wholly-owned subsidiary in the year ended March 31, 2022, and decrease in credit costs and impairment losses.

The net income forecast of ¥110.0 billion is a record-high level surpassing the results for the Year ended March 31, 2020 (simple sum of Mitsubishi UFJ Lease & Finance and Hitachi Capital's results before the business integration), which was immediately before the beginning of the COVID-19 pandemic.

Annual dividend per share for the year ending March 31, 2023 is forecast to be ¥31, an increase of ¥3 year on year.

(4) Medium- to Long-term Management Direction

The Company has developed the Medium- to long-term management direction.

The Medium- to long-term management direction has been developed based on the “Basic Management Policy (Our Mission, Our Vision, Action Principles),” describes “Our 10-year Vision (Together we innovate, challenge and explore the frontiers of the future) ” toward the realization of Our Mission, and shows how we want to be recognized by our stakeholders and how we should transform to become such a company.

Through three-phase medium-term management plans, “Hop,” “Step,” and “Jump,” with the first phase “Hop” being the Medium-term Management Plan covering the three-year period from the year ending March 31, 2024, we will promote Corporate Transformation / Customer Experience (CX) through “Sustainability Transformation (SX) / Digital Transformation (DX)” and “Business Portfolio Transformation” with an aim to achieve “Our 10-year Vision”. CX refers to both Corporate Transformation and Customer Experience, meaning that we will create customer value through company-wide transformation.

Our expected target for the year ending March 31, 2026, the final year of “Hop” include ROA of approximately 1.5%, ROE of approximately 10%, and our expected target of dividend payout ratio during the Medium-term Management Plan of approximately 40%. The medium-term management policy/strategy and specific KPI targets will be determined in the process to develop the new Medium-term Management Plan covering the three-year period from the year ending March 31, 2024.

Please refer to pages 24-29 of “Financial Results for the Fiscal Year Ended March 31, 2022” posted on IR Library on the Company’s website for details of the Medium- to long-term management direction.

(5) Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

(Notes concerning going-concern assumption)

Not applicable

(Changes in accounting policies)

(Application of accounting standard for revenue recognition)

On April 1, 2021, the Company applied the "Accounting Standard for Revenue Recognition" (ASBJ Statement No.29, March 31, 2020, "Accounting Standard for Revenue Recognition"), etc., and recognizes revenue at an amount that it expects to receive in exchange for the promised goods or services when the control of the goods or services is transferred to a customer.

In applying the Accounting Standard for Revenue Recognition, etc., the Company followed the transitional treatment stipulated by a provisory clause of Paragraph 84 of the Accounting Standard for Revenue Recognition. As a result, both revenues and cost of revenues for the year ended March 31, 2022 decreased by ¥9,400 million, but the impact on income before income taxes was insignificant. The impact on retained earnings as of April 1, 2022 was also insignificant.

Pursuant to the transitional treatment stipulated by Paragraph 89-2 of the Accounting Standard for Revenue Recognition, the Company did not reclassify figures for the year ended March 31, 2021 to conform to the new presentation method.

(Application of accounting standard for fair value measurement, etc.)

On April 1, 2021, the Company applied the "Accounting Standard for Fair Value Measurement" (ASBJ Statement No.30, July 4, 2019, "Accounting Standard for Fair Value Measurement"), etc., and the new accounting policies stipulated in the Accounting Standard for Fair Value Measurement, etc. are applied prospectively pursuant to the transitional treatment stipulated by Paragraph 19 of the Accounting Standard for Fair Value Measurement and Paragraph 44-2 of the "Accounting Standard for Financial Instruments" (ASBJ Statement No. 10, July 4, 2019). The application has no impact on the consolidated financial statements.

(Changes in accounting policies following the merger with Hitachi Capital Corporation)

The Company merged with Hitachi Capital Corporation effective on April 1, 2021.

As a result, the Company and its certain consolidated subsidiaries changed the accounting policies regarding the following items from April 1, 2021.

All changes in accounting policies were applied retrospectively to the consolidated financial statements for the year ended March 31, 2021 and the consolidated financial statements for the year ended March 31, 2022.

<Accounting treatment for recognizing revenue from extended lease agreement in lease transactions>

Previously, the Company recognized lease payments from an extended lease agreement (usually for one year) as revenues on the date the lease agreement is extended but changed the method to recognize revenues on a monthly basis over the extended lease term.

We previously recognized lease payments from an extended lease agreement as earnings in a lump sum on the lease commencement date as asset balance related to extended lease agreements is increasing due to the merger and also extended lease agreements generally require lump sum payment of lease payments for the entire lease term on the lease commencement date and are not required to refund unearned portion in the event the agreement is terminated. However, we decided to change the method because an extended lease agreement is a lease transaction and we believe recognizing revenues over the lease term better reflects earnings from lease transactions in the consolidated financial statements.

As a result of this change, in the consolidated balance sheets as of March 31, 2021, other current liabilities increased by ¥8,392 million, lease and other receivables and retained earnings decreased by ¥1,884 million and ¥6,926 million, respectively, compared to their respective balances before the retrospective application. Also because the cumulative effects were adjusted to the balance of total equity as of April 1, 2020, retained earnings as of April 1, 2020 decreased by ¥6,833 million.

The impact of this change on earnings and per share information for the year ended March 31, 2021 is insignificant.

The accounting treatment has been retrospectively applied to the consolidated statements of cash flows for the year ended March 31, 2021, and there was no change in total cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities.

<Accounting treatment for lease transactions treated as finance transactions>

Previously, lease agreements treated as financial transactions in substance based on their nature were recognized as operating loans receivables in the consolidated balance sheets, with interest income recognized as revenues in the consolidated statements of income. However, to reflect the nature of the agreements, we changed the method to recognize them as lease receivables and investments in leases in the consolidated balance sheets, and to recognize lease revenues and cost of lease as revenues and cost of revenues, respectively, in the consolidated statements of income.

Previously, we accounted for and presented those agreements in a similar manner as loans receivables as financial transactions in substance with leased property treated as collateral based on the intent of the contracting parties and nature of the leased property. However, we decided to change the method because of an increase in the number of agreements whereby leased property are returned to the Company after the expiration of the lease term, showing more of a characteristic of finance lease, and also because of an increase in the asset balance of similar transactions following the merger.

As a result of this change, in the consolidated balance sheets as of March 31, 2021, lease receivables and investments in leases and retained earnings increased by ¥214,643 million and ¥1,732 million, respectively, and operating loans receivables decreased by ¥212,146 million. In the consolidated statements of income for the year ended March 31, 2021, both revenues and cost of revenues increased by ¥53,460 million, compared to their respective figures before the retrospective application. Also because the cumulative effects were adjusted to the balance of total equity as of April 1, 2020, retained earnings as of April 1, 2020 increased by ¥1,732 million.

The impact of this change on earnings and per share information for the year ended March 31, 2021 is insignificant.

As a result of retrospective application of the accounting treatment to the consolidated statements of cash flows for the year ended March 31, 2021, “(Increase) decrease in lease receivables and investments in leases” decreased by ¥17,684 million and “(Increase) decrease in loans receivable” increased by ¥17,684 million, and there was no change in total cash flows from operating activities.

<Accounting treatment for deferred assets (bond issuance costs) >

Previously, bond issuance costs related to bonds issued by the Company and its domestic subsidiaries were expensed as incurred, but the method was changed to amortize the costs over the period until the redemption of the relevant bonds using the interest method.

We decided to change the method to better reflect the MHC Group’s funding activities in the consolidated financial statements because bond issuance costs are funding costs as with bond interest and also because the international accounting standards require such costs to be amortized using the interest method and therefore the Company’s overseas subsidiaries amortize their bond issuance costs using the interest method.

As a result of this change, in the consolidated balance sheets as of March 31, 2021, bond issuance costs and retained earnings increased by ¥3,454 million and ¥2,070 million, respectively, compared to their respective balances before the retrospective application. Also because the cumulative effects were adjusted to the balance of total equity as of April 1, 2020, retained earnings as of April 1, 2020 increased by ¥1,993 million.

The impact of this change on earnings and per share information for the year ended March 31, 2021 is insignificant.

The accounting treatment has been retrospectively applied to the consolidated statements of cash flows for the year ended March 31, 2021, and there was no change in total cash flows from operating, investing, and financing activities.

(Segment information, etc.)

1. Overview of reporting segments

The Company's reporting segments are components of the Company for which separate financial statements is available that are reviewed by the Board of Directors regularly to make decisions regarding the allocation of management resources and evaluate operating performance.

On April 1, 2021, the Company (the former Mitsubishi UFJ Lease & Finance Company Limited, "MUL") executed the business integration with Hitachi Capital Corporation ("HC") and changed the trade name to Mitsubishi HC Capital Inc. ("MHC")

Following the business integration, the Company reorganized part of the reporting segments of MUL and HC and changed them to the following ten segments effective April 1, 2021; "Customer Business," "Account Solution," "Vendor Solution," "LIFE," "Real Estate," "Environment & Renewable Energy," "Aviation," "Logistics," "Mobility," and "Others."

Segments of "Healthcare," "Infrastructure & Investment," and other businesses are aggregated into "Others" in accordance with the aggregation criteria set forth in the "Accounting Standard for Disclosures about Segments of an enterprise and Related Information."

Details of the reporting segments after the change are as follows.

Reporting segments	Main services and business description
