Announcement of the Decision to Incorporate the Open Financial Platform to Provide Support for the Japanese Infrastructure Industry

Mitsubishi UFJ Lease & Finance Company Limited (“Mitsubishi UFJ Lease”) and Hitachi Capital Corporation (“Hitachi Capital”) have been proceeding with preparations to incorporate a new company, based on the business alliance agreement regarding the open financial platform executed on August 29, 2016, between five companies, including both of us and Mitsubishi UFJ Financial Group, Inc., The Bank of Tokyo-Mitsubishi UFJ, Ltd. (“BTMU”), and Hitachi, Ltd. We hereby announce that Mitsubishi UFJ Lease and Hitachi Capital have agreed to incorporate Japan Infrastructure Initiative Kabushiki Kaisha (English name: Japan Infrastructure Initiative Company Limited) as the open financial platform to provide financial support for export of the Japanese infrastructure industry and executed a shareholders agreement between the two companies, today. In addition to Mitsubishi UFJ Lease and Hitachi Capital, BTMU will also make an equity investment in the new company.

The new company plans to provide funds on a global base, including equity or mezzanine financing, and to provide other services for infrastructure projects, mainly to Japanese equipment manufacturers, engineering companies, or the like. As a target amount, it aims to provide JPY 100 billion consisting of equity and debt early.

The incorporation of the new company is scheduled for around January 2017, and three of the companies, Mitsubishi UFJ Lease, Hitachi Capital, and BTMU, will proceed with the incorporation procedures.
